Arizona law provides a credit for contributions made to a private school tuition organization that provides scholarships or grants to qualified schools.

The credit is equal to the amount contributed. For 2014, the credit cannot exceed $528 for single taxpavers or heads of household. For married taxpavers that file a joint return, the credit cannot exceed $1,056. In most cases, for married taxpayers who file separate returns, each spouse may claim only one-half (1/2) of the credit that would have been allowed on a joint return.

The credit eligible contributions made to a school tuition organization from January 1, 2015, to April 15, 2015, may be used as a tax credit on either your 2014 or 2015 Arizona income tax return.

If the allowable tax credit is more than your tax or if you have no tax, you may carry the unused credit forward for up to the next 5 consecutive taxable years' income tax liability.

This credit is available only to individuals. Corporations may not claim this credit. A partnership may not pass the credit through to its partners. An S corporation may not pass the credit through to its shareholders.

A private school tuition organization is an organization that meets all of the following:

Arizona Form 323

allowed as a credit.

For example: During 2014, Mary, a single person, gave $1,400 to a school tuition organization. For 2014, Mary is allowed a maximum credit on Form 323 of $528. Mary's 2014 tax liability is $400. Mary may apply $400 of the $528 credit claimed on Form 323 against her 2014 tax liability. Mary may carryover the unused credit of $128 to her 2015 income tax return. Mary may not claim a credit on Form 323 for the $872 gift that was more than the allowable credit ($1,400 minus allowable credit of $528).

However, Mary may claim a credit on Arizona Form 348 for the contribution made to the school tuition organization that was more than the $528 allowable credit. The credit Mary may claim on Form 348 cannot exceed the maximum credit allowed on that form. To compute that credit, Mary must complete Form 348 in addition to Form 323. Mary must also complete Arizona Form 301.

For 2014, Mary would compute her available credit for Form 323 as follows.
